1. What agent of erosion formed the moraines shown on the map?

2. 10,000 years ago, Long Island Sound was a fresh water lake. What glacial feature trapped the water?

3. What is the major difference between sediment sorting in the outwash and sediments in the moraines?

4. Which location will have larger sediments? E or F and why? Which location will have sorted sediments/ unsorted sediments?

1. The partially buried ice block will leave a depression and will eventually fill with water. What is the name of the Glacial feature that will form as a result?

2. Name the tear-drop shaped glacial feature at location R

3. Letter X and Y formed as a result of Glacial melting. Name this feature.